16 Reasons To Have This Bag

91% of Americans believe it's important to be prepared for emergencies. Only 58% of households report having taken any steps at all to prepare.

You may need to survive on your own after an emergency. This means having your own food, water, and other supplies in sufficient quantity to last for at least three days. You could get help in hours, or it might take days. Basic services such as electricity, gas, water, sewage treatment, and telephones may be cut off for days, or even a week or longer. Do your family a favor, and prepare yourself with this bag.
