

Guidelines for Entry Codes — Fall 2009

Students requesting entry codes for Fall GRDSN courses may receive them provided they meet the following criteria:

1. Completion of entry testing with the required reading score (COMPASS reading score of 80 or higher or an ASSET reading score of 40 or higher).
2. Or, a student presenting an accredited college transcript indicating completion of a college level reading course may receive entry codes.

If entry codes are given, they must be matched to one of the three enrollment options listed in New Student Schedule Options for Fall 2009.

Students who have not met the entry requirements above and still wish to enter the graphic design program may take the Graphic Design A.A.S. Degree Three-Year Option (attached).

Students Qualifying for entry codes can receive them from:

Overloads

Once GRDSN classes reach capacity enrollment, overloads will not be given, but students should be advised that openings may appear between the first and tenth days of the quarter.

These openings will be filled on a first-come first-served basis.
